

Proclamation

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

MAY 17-23, 2015

WHEREAS, public works infrastructure, facilities, and services are of vital importance to sustainable communities and to the health, safety, and well-being of the citizen of Monroe; and

WHEREAS, such facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees from both the public and the private sector, who are responsible for and must plan, design, build, operate, and maintain the transportation, water supply, wastewater treatment, and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to serve the citizens of Monroe; and

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest for citizens and civic leaders to gain knowledge of and to maintain a progressive interest and understand the importance of public works and public works programs in the City of Monroe; and

WHEREAS, 2015 marks the 55th annual National Public Works Week, sponsored by the American Public Works Association.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Geoffrey Thomas, Mayor of the City of Monroe, do hereby proclaim the week of May 17-23, 2015, as in the City of Monroe, and I urge all people in the community to join me in honoring our public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees, and recognizing the substantial contributions they have made to our health, safety, welfare, and quality of life.

Geoffrey Thomas, Mayor
