MONROE HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER ARRESTED FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT WITH A MINOR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Tuesday, June 25, 2024

CONTACT: Chuck Fuller | Sergeant | (425) 327-3390 | cfuller@monroewa.gov

CASE NO.: 2024-2195

The victim came forward in early May 2024 reporting she had a relationship with the 53-year-old male of Seattle, WA. Detectives corroborated the victim’s testimony and developed probable cause to arrest the male on two counts of Sexual Misconduct with a Minor.

Detectives believe the male has engaged in a pattern of sexual misconduct involving other victims over the past several years. Anyone with additional information about the case or other potential victims should contact the Monroe Police Department at 360-794-6300.

Once informed of the investigation, the Monroe School District placed the male on administrative leave. “The District’s cooperation has been vital in helping us thoroughly investigate this case”, said Police Chief Jeff Jolley. "We commend the victim for their courage in coming forward."

The male was booked into the Snohomish County Jail on two counts of Sexual Misconduct with a Minor. The Snohomish County Prosecutor’s Office is responsible for prosecuting all adult felony cases referred by the Monroe Police Department.
Victims of sexual assault and abuse in Snohomish County can find help through a 24-hour helpline available at the Providence Intervention Center for Assault and Abuse at 425-252-4800.

###