

Proclamation of Emergency

WHEREAS, On January 21, 2020, Washington's State Department of Health (WDOH) confirmed the first case of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) in the United States in Snohomish County, Washington, and local health departments and the WDOH have since that time worked to identify, contact, and test people in Washington who have been potentially exposed to COVID-19 in coordination with the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC); and

WHEREAS, COVID-19, a respiratory disease that can result in serious illness or death, is caused by the SARS-CoV-2 virus, which is a new strain of coronavirus that had not been previously identified in people and can easily spread from person to person; and

WHEREAS, The CDC identifies the potential public health threat posed by COVID-19 both globally and in the United States as "high" and has advised that person-to-person spread of COVID-19 will continue to occur globally, including within the United States; and

WHEREAS, On January 31, 2020, US Department of Health and Human Services Secretary Azar declared a public health emergency for COVID-19, beginning on January 27, 2020; and

WHEREAS, The CDC currently indicates there are 89,254 confirmed cases of COVID-19 worldwide with 86 of those cases in the US and WDOH has confirmed localized person-to-person spread of COVID-19 in Washington, significantly increasing the risk of exposure and infection to the general public and creating an extreme public health risk that may spread quickly; and

WHEREAS, The worldwide outbreak of COVID-19 and the effects of its extreme risk of person-to-person transmission throughout the US and Washington presents a significant impact to people's lives and health and is a public health disaster that affects life, health, property or the public peace; and

WHEREAS, Governor Inslee proclaimed a statewide State of Emergency on February 29, 2020, and

WHEREAS, after consultation with Fire District 7, Hospital District 1, Monroe School District, and city staff including the City of Monroe's Emergency Management Director, I have determined that is necessary to issue a Proclamation of Emergency to facilitate access to resources and to modify policies and procedures intended to reduce potential exposure to COVID-19.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Geoffrey Thomas, Mayor of the City of Monroe pursuant to Chapter 2.60 of the Monroe Municipal Code, do hereby proclaim that a State of Emergency exists in the City of Monroe, and direct the plans and procedures of the City of Monroe Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan be implemented.
